

Rangitiaria Tibble

Te Arawa, Te Whānau a Apanui, Ngāti Porou, Tūhoe

Raised within the embrace of her iwi, Rangitiaria is enthused to contribute to the advancement of Ngāti Whakaue aspirations for education, language revitalisation and wellbeing at Te Taumata o Ngāti Whakaue. Her mother, Maria, was part of the development and formation of Te Paepae Wānanga in 2005, the establishment of Te Rangihakahaka Centre of Science and Technology and served on the board until her sudden passing at the end of 2018; and Rangitiaria is inspired to continue her legacy of leadership, innovation, and service.

With a background in education, health, and iwi development, Rangitiaria is an experienced facilitator and cultural adviser who is passionate about te reo and mātauranga Māori. She has taught in tertiary and community settings and is one of the Pouwawao Mātauranga facilitating Te Ahu o te reo Māori.

Beyond the workspace, enjoys spending time with her whānau, and performing with Te Kapa Haka o Ngāti Whakaue. She also serves as an elected representative for Ngāti Whakaue on Te Tatau o Te Arawa.
